FROM THE EAST

As the Sun Rises in the East

Brethren,

I congratulate Bro's. Damesi and Martin on receiving their First Degree of Masonry as well as Bro's. Eichenhofer and Go on being passed to the Second Degree of Masonry. I also congratulate Bro. Kershner on receiving his Golden Veterans Award for 50 years of service in the fraternity. We presented it to him at his home for his convenience.

We were dark in July, so when we come back to work in August, we will be at advanced stations.

There is a Sonoma Valley tour on August 13. If interested, RSVP to me (707-333-7866) by August 11th. The cost is $30 per person and includes transportation. Lunch is on your own.

We will be having some degrees in August but the dates are TBD. I hope all had a great vacation in July as we will be busy conferring degrees in the final months of my tenure. There are also some fun things planned. We have worked hard the first half of the year and deserve some fun.

September 9th we will honor our Brother, John Wasson, as Mason of the Year in Santa Rosa. If you wish to go, RSVP to me (707-333-7866) by August 25th. The cost is $35 and includes dinner. Dress is formal. We will provide limited transportation.

I hope you enjoy the new lighting in the lodge and banquet rooms. Thanks go to SMEF for providing the funds to get this upgrade completed as it was a safety hazard, and thanks to Wor. Bro. Keith Wattles and Bro. Robert Prenton for installing them at no charge to the lodge.

If you need a ride to and from lodge call me and I will arrange to get you here and home again safely.

Fraternally,
Barry Hughes, Master

WHO COMES HERE?

A Masonic Essay

Perhaps I was lucky?

When I made the decision to join Freemasonry, I cautiously arrived for a stated meeting's potluck dinner in October 2008 and was made to feel immediately welcome by the late, great, John Lamb, P.M. I made some quick connections that night and between that night and a Thursday evening in January the following year when I was made an Entered Apprentice Mason, I attended everything I could and was invited by the brethren to more than I was even aware: The November and December potlucks, the Thanksgiving Dinner, the Christmas Party, numerous breakfasts at the Red Onion, and even a pair of Masonic Formation nights.

By the time I was voted on, by the night I was to be initiated, the men of Naval Lodge knew who I was, and what I was about. They knew my wife and kids. I had made friends. In fact, some men were surprised to find out the night of my initiation that I was the one being initiated...they had assumed I already was a Mason because I had been around so much.

It wasn't luck, because I wasn't the only one. At the same time I was making myself known, Bros. John Wasson and Rick Lauziere were also petitioning the lodge and much the same were attending events as much as possible. John Lamb once referred to us the three mousketeers. So no, it wasn't luck, but maybe it's an aberration?

In the 2 and a half years of being a Freemason, I've met few of the men who became brothers before they were initiated. Often, the first time I've ever met them was the night they were initiated...and sadly for some, it's the only time I've met them. Where did they go? Frankly, it's a worrisome prospect voting on the potential membership of someone I've never met. I trust the investigating committee to do diligent work, but it's one meeting, and how much can one tell based that to determine if the man in question is a proper fit?

In contrast, those men who made them self known regularly before they became brethren, are the same ones who are still showing up. Perhaps the key to realizing membership retention is to recognize those who care to socialize, get to know us, and allow us to get to know them before they are voted upon and made brothers.

A Lodge in Southern California has recognized this very same issue and now makes it a part of their process that any potential prospect must attend three social functions (for free of course) before they can be voted upon. This is good common sense and I believe we should do the same...so when there is a knock on the door and we ask who comes here?, the man is not a stranger, but a welcomed friend.
